Loving One Another

Civic - The people you don't personally know but they are a part of the same communities to which you belong.

Social - People we know but whom we don't share any meaningful part of our lives.

Personal - The people who are a part of our lives on a regular basis.

Intimate - The people who know us the most. Usually only a few people.

Step 1: Who is God Calling Me to Love?

- Spend time praying this week about the relationships in your life. Use the circles of relationships to think about the people the Lord is calling you to love.
- Identify the people that come to mind as you pray in these different circles.

Step 2: How is God Calling me to Love Them?

- Read 1 Corinthians 13 and Luke 10:25-37
- What does it look like to love the people in your life this week? Using these passages of scripture what are practical applications of love?

Examples used in the sermon: (to help stimulate your thinking)

- Maybe God is calling you to love your those in your intimate sphere of relationships by not being easily angered and bringing the drama of your work home with you.
- Maybe there are people in your personal circle of relationships who have wronged you and love means keeping no record of wrong.
- Or Maybe God is calling you to love those in your social circle of relationships by welcoming those refugee neighbors into your life.
- Perhaps love means that God is calling you to fight against those who delight in evil by serving children in foster care.
