Migrant Children at the Border

The number of children and teens arriving at the US border without a guardian has dramatically surpassed our government's capacity to provide care. 1300 girls age 13-17 are currently living at the San Diego Convention Center. Visit www.harborcity.church/border to find ways for you to get involved.

We're Going Back Inside! Sunday, June 20

As the Covid situation improves, we will move the 9am service indoors in the 16th Street Event Space. We recognize that individuals at HCC have a wide range of perspectives on the use of masks. We will provide updates on our use of masks as we move forward, and our approach will be guided by two principles:

2. We will love one another by seeking to have a policy that focuses on making as many people as possible feel safe and welcome.
 1. We will seek to follow the advice of state and local authorities, recognizing that their guidelines are changing and we expect they will continue to relax.
- While we continue to worship outdoors, our approach is to ask you to wear a mask when singing, but masks are optional when you are seated or socially distanced.

Passing the Test

1 Corinthians 13:1-13

¹ If I speak in the tongues of men or of angels, but do not have love, I am only a resounding gong or a clanging cymbal. ² If I have the gift of prophecy and can fathom all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have a faith that can move mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. ³ If I give all I possess to the poor and give over my body to hardship that I may boast, but do not have love, I gain nothing.

⁸ Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will cease; where there are tongues, they will be stilled; where there is knowledge, it will pass away. ⁹ For we know in part and we prophesy in part, ¹⁰ but when completeness comes, what is in part disappears. ¹¹ When I was a child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I put the ways of childhood behind me. ¹² For now we see only a reflection as in a mirror; then we shall see face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I am fully known.

¹³ And now these three remain: faith, hope and love. But the greatest of these is love.
