Serve on Sundays

Jump into a Sunday Serve Team and help make Sundays happen- and better get to know others at HCC! Anticipated summer needs for the Prayer Team and Set Up Crew. Email AJ Derr to learn more: aj@harborcity.church.

Migrant Children at the Border

The number of children and teens arriving at the US border without a guardian has dramatically surpassed our government's capacity to provide care. 1300 girls age 13-17 are currently living at the San Diego Convention Center. Visit www.harborcity.church/border to find ways for you to get involved.

We're Going Back Inside! NEXT SUNDAY!!

As the Covid situation improves, we will move the 9am service indoors in the 16th Street Event Space. We recognize that individuals at HCC have a wide range of perspectives on the use of masks. We will provide updates on our use of masks as we move forward, and our approach will be guided by two principles:

2. We will love one another by seeking to have a policy that focuses on making as many people as possible feel safe and welcome.
1. We will seek to follow the advice of state and local authorities, recognizing that their guidelines are changing and we expect they will continue to relax.

While we continue to worship outdoors, our approach is to ask you to wear a mask when singing, but masks are optional when you are seated or socially distanced.

Twenty-Six Dirty Feet

John 13:1-17

<sup>1</sup> It was just before the Passover Festival. Jesus knew that the hour had come for him to leave this world and go to the Father. Having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end.

<sup>2</sup> The evening meal was in progress, and the devil had already prompted Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot, to betray Jesus. <sup>3</sup> Jesus knew that the Father had put all things under his power, and that he had come from God and was returning to God; <sup>4</sup> so he got up from the meal, took off his outer clothing, and wrapped a towel around his waist. <sup>5</sup> After that, he poured water into a basin and began to wash his disciples' feet, drying them with the towel that was wrapped around him.

<sup>6</sup> He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, "Lord, are you going to wash my feet?"

<sup>7</sup> Jesus replied, "You do not realize now what I am doing, but later you will understand."

<sup>8</sup> "No," said Peter, "you shall never wash my feet."

Jesus answered, "Unless I wash you, you have no part with me."

<sup>9</sup> "Then, Lord," Simon Peter replied, "not just my feet but my hands and my head as well!"

<sup>10</sup> Jesus answered, "Those who have had a bath need only to wash their feet; their whole body is clean. And you are clean, though not every one of you." <sup>11</sup> For he knew who was going to betray him, and that was why he said not every one was clean.

<sup>12</sup> When he had finished washing their feet, he put on his clothes and returned to his place. "Do you understand what I have done for you?" he asked them. <sup>13</sup> "You call me 'Teacher' and 'Lord,' and rightly so, for that is what I am. <sup>14</sup> Now that I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also should wash one another's feet. <sup>15</sup> I have set you an example that you should do as I have done for you. <sup>16</sup> Very truly I tell you, no servant is greater than his master, nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him. <sup>17</sup> Now that you know these things, you will be blessed if you do them.
