Get Connected to a Life Group!

Life Groups are small groups of 12-15 people meeting during the week for fellowship and spiritual growth. Find descriptions of current groups at www.harborcity.church/life-groups, and use the online form to sign up. Email Chad with questions, chad@harborcity.church.

Help Afghan Refugees in San Diego

Two-six Afghan refugee families are currently being resettled in San Diego each week, most with literally only the clothes on their backs. Help them experience the love of Jesus in their moment of need. Volunteer to personally serve a family, purchase essential items, or give financially. More info at harborcity.church/refugees.

Life Group Leaders Needed!

Life Groups are the heartbeat of Harbor—and we need more groups! It’s simple to start new groups, and HCC provides support and resources while you lead. Interested in helping start a new Group? Contact chad@harborcity.church.

The Dishonest Steward

Luke 16:1-9

Luke 16:1-9 ¹ He also said to the disciples, “There was a rich man who had a manager, and charges were brought to him that this man was wasting his possessions. ² And he called him and said to him, ‘What is this that I hear about you? Turn in the account of your management, for you can no longer be manager.’ ³ And the manager said to himself, ‘What shall I do, since my master is taking the management away from me? I am not strong enough to dig, and I am ashamed to beg. ⁴ I have decided what to do, so that when I am removed from management, people may receive me into their houses.’ ⁵ So, summoning his master’s debtors one by one, he said to the first, ‘How much do you owe my master?’ ⁶ He said, ‘A hundred measures of oil.’ He said to him, ‘Take your bill, and sit down quickly and write fifty.’ ⁷ Then he said to another, ‘And how much do you owe?’ He said, ‘A hundred measures of wheat.’ He said to him, ‘Take your bill, and write eighty.’ ⁸ The master commended the dishonest manager for his shrewdness. For the sons of this world are more shrewd in dealing with their own generation than the sons of light. ⁹ And I tell you, make friends for yourselves by means of unrighteous wealth, so that when it fails they may receive you into the eternal dwellings.
